The editorial staff apologizes profusely for the lateness of this newsletter. (The editor was married on March 15 and insists that is a good excuse!)

2003 Feast of the Hunter's Moon

The Feast of the Hunter's Moon is fast approaching, and will run on September 13-14. The 42nd Forfar Bridie booth will certainly be a crowd favorite again this year and volunteers are needed! If you're a returning volunteer or interested in volunteering for the first time, contact Peg Wright at 426-5693 or Pat McClanahan at 743-3160.

Passings

On February 8, 2003, 42nd piper and board member Frank Rickey passed away unexpectedly. Frank, 62, was a professor emeritus of Physics at Purdue. Following the death of Tom Griffin, Frank ably served the 42nd as business manager. The 42nd band will always remember his generosity and good company. Memorials donated to the 42nd in Frank's name will be used to provide a new set of bagpipes for the band.

On July 13, 2003, Clifford "Ike" Lundberg passed away at the age of 88. Ike was the father of board member Karen Mills, and a founding member of the 42nd. The 42nd offers its deepest sympathy to the family.

Scottish Country Dancing

Reported by Isobel Miller

Do you feel confused when we dance "The Gay Gordons" at the Burns Supper? Don't be shy. Now's your chance to learn the basics of Scottish Country Dancing. A "Free" workshop will be held at the Morton Community Center on Thursday, September 18th from 7:00-8:30pm and a series of Scottish Country Dancing classes will be taught each of the following 6 weeks by members of "The Whole Nine Yards." The cost for the 6 classes is $36. Register at the West Lafayette Parks and Recreation Department or at the Morton Community Center. Call Isobel Miller at 463-0608 if you have questions or need more information.
